Centre-based service	An education and care service other than a family day care service.
Obligations to notify	Approved providers and services have an obligation to notify CECA about incidents, complaints and changes to information about the approved provider or approved service. This includes serious incidents, complaints and circumstances where the health, safety or wellbeing of children may have been put at risk.

Obligations

ACT Public Preschools must meet the obligations of the National Law, including Regulation 168, which states that education and care services must have policies and procedures in relation to the following:

- health and safety, including matters relating to:
  - nutrition, food and beverages, and dietary requirements;
  - sun protection;
  - water safety, including safety during any water-based activities;
  - the administration of first aid; and
  - sleep and rest for children.
- incident, injury, trauma and illness procedures;
- dealing with infectious diseases;
- dealing with medical conditions in children;
- emergency and evacuation;
- delivery of children to, and collection of children from, education and care service premises;
- excursions;
- providing child-safe environments;
- staffing, including:
  - a code of conduct for staff members;
  - determining the responsible person present at the service; and
  - the participation of volunteers and students on practicum placements.
- interactions with children;
- enrolment and orientation;
- governance and management of the service, including confidentiality of records;

- dealing with complaints.

1. Overview

- 1.1. This document provides guidance to nominated supervisors relating to the general principles of the Education Act 2004, which priorities the delivery of high quality, free education for all children attending a government school or preschool.
- 1.2. Regulation 168 of the National Law requires that education and care services must have policies and procedures in relation to the payment of fees and provision of a statement of fees charged by the education and care service.

2. Rationale

- 2.1. In accordance with provider approval conditions, this procedure aims to comply with the requirements set out within the National Law.
- 2.2. The aim of this procedure is to outline the responsibilities of principals/nominated supervisors, school boards, families and guardians in relation to voluntary contributions and the provision of a statement.

3. Procedures

- 3.1. School Boards may collect voluntary contributions from families in accordance with Section 27(1) of the Education Act.
- 3.2. School Boards will liaise with the nominated supervisor to identify communication strategies surrounding requests for voluntary contributions by families.
- 3.3. If School Boards do make requests for voluntary contributions, families must be made aware of the principles that apply in relation to financial contributions outlined in Section 27(3) of the Education Act.
- 3.4. School Boards will work in collaboration with governing schools to ensure that voluntary contributions support the acquisition of educational resources for use within preschools.
- 3.5. Parents or guardians may opt to make partial voluntary contributions throughout a school year.
- 3.6. Individual records of voluntary contributions must be maintained at the governing school and remain confidential.
- 3.7. Receipt of voluntary contributions must be provided by school administrations to families upon payment.
- 3.8. In accordance with the Education Act, no child will be refused benefits or services by a preschool if parents or guardians choose not to contribute.

4. Contact
